

Subject: Survival, Power and Immortality are now within your reach

Dear Sir or Madam,

With chaos, confusion and personal threats accelerating globally, we want to assure you, those at the top of the top, that your dramatic loss of "Power Source" and hopes of immortality can, indeed, be restored.

One good look at Philippe Sauvage's compelling classified government files of "powers, abilities, and service" throughout the last half of the 20th century will confirm, without question, his absolute ability to provide you with what you have lost and now desperately need.

In fact, as you watch the plan for "full spectrum world dominance" crumbling underneath your feet, you now need Dr. Savage even more than he needs you,

He knows that, and so do I.

Please feel free to call. I know exactly how to arrange your urgent reciprocal relationship with complete confidentiality.

This offer is exclusively for the first one who contacts me.

Sincerely,

Dr. Jane Dillon, PhD
